

Kansas Green Lights Broadband Alliance

Kansas GREEN LIGHTS Broadband Alliance Project October 16, 2009; The Broadband Alliance received notification from the Kansas Department of Commerce - Broadband Initiative that its training project submitted under the Broadband Technology Opportunities Program of the National Telecommunications and Information Administration had received a 'green light'. The GREEN LIGHT status is a formal recommendation to the NTIA to strongly consider the Broadband Alliance's applicaiton.